

31 May 2019

NOTICE TO DP WORLD CUSTOMERS
CHAIN OF RESPONSIBILITY LEVY

Customers are advised that effective from 1 July 2019 DP World Australia will be increasing the Chain of Responsibility Fee on all full import containers delivered by road.

As part of Chain of Responsibility Legislation compliance, DP World Sydney provides a weigh in motion service for all import full containers. The load measurement devices are intended to ensure compliance to axle loading requirements of vehicles using public roads.

The Chain of Responsibility Fees effective from 1 July 2019 will be;

Chain of Responsibility Fee A$6.35 plus GST per full import container delivered by road

The Chain of Responsibility Levy is applicable at DP World leasehold facilities in the following Port;

Sydney - DPW Port Botany Terminal

The Chain of Responsibility Levy will be charged direct to Shipping Lines as part of their Vessel Invoice.

The Chain of Responsibility Levy is not applicable to exports, transshipments, empty containers, and full import containers delivered by rail.

DP World reserves the right to review the Chain of Responsibility Levy.

Yours faithfully

Max Kruse
Chief Commercial Officer & Head of Logistics