The first free storage day commences when the container is made available through the 1-Stop system. Saturday and Sunday remain classed as working days and are counted as storage free days.

Subscribers may access information on container storage via the 1-Stop website www.1-stop.biz.

The method of payment for import storage will remain unchanged. Storage can be paid via the 1-Stop website using the ComPay system. Consignees and transport companies are reminded that containers will not be released until all due storage has been paid.

Any queries concerning individual containers may be directed to: Landside Manager on + 61 (07) 3895 9113.

DP World Australia reserves the right to review the Import Storage charges at any time.

[1] If a reefer container is held at the terminal beyond the free storage period, reefer service charges will apply in addition to the daily storage charges. These charges are applicable per day after the free storage period.

[2] The yard handling fee is a single charge, applicable to those containers in the Terminal beyond the free period.

[3] Hazardous Containers will incur an additional charge per day, as above, in addition to the daily container storage charge after the expiry of the Free Storage Period.
